WAK-IGH-AN

Jenny Watkins
Junior
Watson High School

Well Jenny -

It's almost time for the banquet; I'm so excited!! I hope it is a tremendous success. And tonight after the banquet — Well?

We have had a good time this year haven't we? During the play - all those practices and nights afterwards at Williams - we had fun. I'd say all-in-all we've had a wonderful year. It's funny when you try to recall all those little incidences that caused so many laughs, we can't even remember them.

And when we think about next year - well I just know that we are going to have a wonderful year; and we'll be the best senior class of all.

Let's always be good friends and have more fun than we've ever imagined!! Next year we'll be having another play, a barbeque, and a trip to Washington. We'll lead each other to the roller coaster and ride and ride and ride (that's how we'll feel when we get off right?)

Remember I love ya and consider you my best friend. I think that we've had more fun together and ~~unstands~~ each other more this year than ever before. We have, like kids on many things. I'll see you at Wake Forest year after next! Love - Dottie

ALMA MATER

It's dear old Wakelon, It's dear old Wakelon.

We have the best school in the land.

Come on Wakelonians, join in Wakelonians.

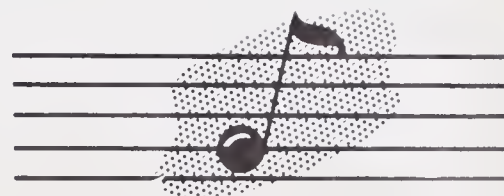

We'll show the whole world where we stand.

Now is the time, boys, to make a big noise,

No matter what the people say.

For there's none to fear, the gang's all here.

So it's hail to dear old Wakelon. Hail!

DEDICATION

In appreciation for our school system, we, the Senior Class of Wakelon High School, wish to dedicate this issue of the WAK-IGH-AN to our parents, our teachers, and to all the wonderful people of the community who have made our school years happy ones and our graduation possible.

IN MEMORIAM

We, the class of 1955, present this edition of the WAK-IGH-AN in memory of our beloved minister and friend, Rev. S. E. Mercer, who passed away in his sleep on November 22, 1954. Rev. Mercer was a member of the Wakelon School Board and was loved by all who knew him. As we prepare to meet life, his life will stand as an inspiration and challenge.

We, the class of 1955, present this edition of the WAK-IGH-AN in memory of our beloved classmate, James Leamon Long, Jr. He was killed in an accident in the summer of 1945 after our second year in school. And now, as we prepare to graduate and go our separate ways, our hearts are saddened that James Leamon is not here to share this last companionship with us.

OUR PRINCIPAL

MR. FRANKLIN ROSS JONES

As seniors of 1955, we wish to express our appreciation to Mr. Jones for his help and inspiration during this year. We shall always remember with gratitude and love our principal, teacher, and friend in the years that follow our graduation.

CLASS POEM

Our school life now is closing;
We leave with heavy hearts.
Within your walls, dear Wakelon,
Our memory ne'er departs.

We leave with dreams of life ahead,
Each dream a separate place;
For when we leave dear Wakelon,
We meet life face to face.

We hear the future calling,
To meet it we must strive;
With lofty heads and hearts so strong,
Goes forth the Class of Fifty-five.

CLASS SONG

(Tune: "Bells of Saint Mary")

The bells of old Wakelon,
Our dear Alma Mater,
To us they are ringing
A love song so dear.
Our class will remember
The good days together,
We'll cherish you, we'll honor
You, forever more.

We classmates together,
Now bid you adieu,
For soon, we will leave you,
The school that we love.
To you, our dear loved one,
We pledge you our honor, and sing
Our praise and love to you,
Dear Wakelon High.

The bells of old Wakelon,
We hear they are calling,
The Class of Fifty-five,
Who come from this school;
And so our companions, when future
Is calling, our school bells,
Shall ring out, no more,
The Golden Rule.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

On a bright September morning in 1943, a group of happy but frightened children were greeted by the friendly smiling faces of Mrs. Eva Page and Mrs. Lois Wall. On that day, our adventure into the world of education was begun. Since that time, we have blazed a trail forward through the grades leaving behind many memorable incidents which are "never to be forgotten ones" with all of us. In our first year for instance, we can never remember our room with a vacant corner. Jo Ann tells us that in the first grade someone stole her lunch and to this day she hasn't found the culprit.

We were a very proud group of second graders; our teachers were Miss Dean Hardison and Mrs. Carter Studdert. If we remember correctly, Miss Hardison's favorite pastime that year was wielding the paddle; many felt its sting. In our second year we also had our only fatality--Leamon Long, one of our classmates, was killed.

In the third grade, with Mrs. Mary Lowery and Miss Mozell Rogers as our teachers, we had our first real battle with English. Today--we find ourselves still struggling. In the third grade we learned the tactics of modern cowboy and Indian warfare in our well-hidden fort under the gym.

Journeying upstairs was a frightening experience for some of us, but we found we really had nothing to fear, for the fourth grade wasn't nearly as bad as we had expected. Even so at the end of the year we were glad Miss Davis--now Mrs. Ben Thomas--and Mrs. Winston decided to send us to the fifth grade where we were met by Mrs. Helen Gregory and Miss Annie Lou Alston. After a year of hard studying and memorizing quite a few poems, we successfully passed all our subjects and went hurrying on our way to the sixth grade. The main attraction of our sixth year other than our studies, was Cupid's arrows which seem to have been shot throughout the whole sixth grade. Due to this, the art of note passing was taken up; that includes love notes to Jeanne Bobbitt. Nonsense aside, we learned our lessons well and under the capable leadership of Mrs. Wallace Chamblee and Mrs. Lee Currin, we made our grade.

Mrs. F. E. Bunn and Mrs. Harold Sauls were our seventh grade teachers. We recall how that year, two of our classmates dressed in full red skirts portrayed high school cheerleaders. Well, Sandy and Patsy, we see you made it. Bubble gum, also, became the fad that year.

In the eighth grade under the guidance of Miss Gladys Baker and Mr. Harold Sauls, stars and blossoms came into our lives. It was then we took up the study of astronomy and flowers. We, also, became acquainted with the subjects which we were to hit with full force the next year. The same year, Mr. Sauls passed out cigars.

At last, the grand day arrived. We had become Freshmen in high school. For beginners we did well, even though we did forget which way to go occasionally and also which class was when; but we soon learned. Our teachers in the ninth grade were Miss Melba Strickland and Mr. Jim Fish. It was under the capable leadership of Mr. Fish that all the girls of the class can say truthfully that they learned the art of giving artificial respiration. Both girls and boys can never forget the day we had health examinations in Raleigh, especially the lunch hour.

Mr. Herbert Holt and Miss Irma Walker were our teachers in our tenth year. During that year, several of the girls started "going steady" while the boys had not realized that girls were around. Nothing very exciting happened that year, but we began looking forward to the year when we would be Juniors with rings as proof.

Our Junior year, with Miss Blanche Gay as our teacher, was full of many exciting and wonderful memories: the magazine sale which provided quite a few with aching feet; career day, which helped us decide upon our future; the Junior and Senior Banquet which provided more memories than could ever be listed; and, of course, the Junior Play, "Aunt Min Drops In," which gave several of our classmates their first real case of stage fright. All these little things were added to our Junior year to make it one of the most pleasant in all our memories.

The Senior year which we have just completed is one we could never forget. The thrill of being Seniors comes only once and we have truly taken advantage of every opportunity which has presented itself to us. Our trip to Washington, a real highlight, was very exciting and adventurous. Now with graduation and class night to conclude our wonderful journey, we would like to thank our sponsors this year, Miss Blanche Gay and Mr. Franklin R. Jones, for helping to make our Senior year the success it has been.

On leaving Wakelon, we would like to thank our Alma Mater for the inspiration she has given us through the years. May we prove our loyalty by making our lives of service to all mankind.

Historian,

Gayle Dunn

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the members of the Senior Class, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and fifty-five, being of happy--if not sound--mind; do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament, making all the writings heretofore null and void. We bequeath all assets, real and personal, as which we, the testators, at this time possess to be bestowed as follows:

ARTICLE I To our beloved school, Wakelon, we bequeath our everlasting loyalty and devotion; and assure her that her patience in keeping us for twelve years will never be forgotten.

ARTICLE II To our parents, we give our appreciation and devotion for making our graduation possible. We hereby promise to do as much as we can to make their lives enjoyable.

ARTICLE III To the faculty, we will our deepest appreciation for their patience and guidance throughout the past years.

ARTICLE IV To the Freshmen, we leave our dignified ways and school spirit.

ARTICLE V To the Sophomores, we leave the honor of entertaining the class of 1956.

ARTICLE VI To the Juniors, we leave the honorable position as Seniors. We leave them the thrill of walking down the aisle at assembly, of being looked up to by all underclassmen, and all the other Senior privileges.

ARTICLE VII The Seniors bequeath individually the following items:

1. Barbara Alford wills her books (from which she is always studying) to Diane Broughton.
2. Billy Alford wills his school bus and bus route to Charles Driver, since the bus is switched from house to house each year.
3. David Alford wills his position as Business Manager on the annual staff to any poor Junior; by the way, David assures him he will especially enjoy running from one warehouse to another in Wilson.
4. Jeanne Bobbitt tells me that she has nothing she can do without, so, therefore, she wills nothing; she begs--no hard feelings, please!
5. Dewey Brannan wills his ability to be a pest to all the teachers to Bobby Weathers.
6. Phil Brown wills his gracefulness (on the floor) on the basketball team to Joe Wayne Tippet.
7. Edwin Bunn wills his height to Steve Stallings--he needs it!
8. Sandra Bunn has been trying for two years to give away her good typing rate (10 words per minute) to someone--so now Betty Ann, she is giving it to you--you have to take it!
9. Jerry Chamblee was willed good looks last year, now he passes them on to all the handsome Romeos of Wakelon.
10. Annette Daniels wills her many clothes to Dorothy Smith.
11. Kay Denton wills her height to Donna Mitchell.
12. Gayle Dunn wills her position as treasurer in every organization to Jean Joyner--give Jean money, money, money!
13. Kenneth Eddins wills his cue stick at "Runts" to Robert T. Draughon.
14. H. E. Edwards wills his quiet ways to Warren and Wayne Boykin.
15. Alice Faulkner wills her ability to keep office to Gwen Beasley.
16. Willard Gay wills his football uniform to Aubrey Gay.
17. Billy Green wills his superlative (cutest) to Tony Pearce.
18. Menia Hocutt wills her preference for State to Nancy Alford--we hear that Nancy prefers Carolina though!
19. Geraldine Johnson leaves nothing but Bennie; by the way, he is not being willed!
20. Peggy King wills her ability to go with Wendell boys to Dot Baker.

21. Pete Liles wills his ability to trade cars all during the Senior year to Aubry Gay.
22. Luther Long wills his big feet and famous name, "Feet Long," to Benny Bunn.
23. Malcolm Martin leaves his driver's license to Harold Draughon.
24. Linda Mitchell wills her witty ways to Jenny Watkins.
25. Harold Murray wills his position as driver of the activity bus to Billy Bolton.
26. Victor Pace wills his ability to blush anywhere, at any time, to Freddie Beck.
27. Douglas Perry wills his famous speeding record, 85 M.P.H., and his speeding song to Cordell Page. "Satch," keep that jeep out of the ditches!
28. Joe Ann Perry wills her knee guards to Peggy Richardson--by the way, Peggy, you'll have to find them first!
29. Marlene Phelps wills her red sweater to Dottie Privette.
30. Alice Phillips wills her cute little freckles to Jean Murray.
31. Linnie Lou Price wills her ability to sew to Betty Bunn.
32. Frank Privette leaves his ability to work in the chemistry lab to Gene A. Parrish.
33. Ruth Temple wills her position as 4-H County and State winner to Linda Bailey.
34. Ann Upchurch wills her guard position on the basketball team to Betsy Goodwin.
35. Joe Bryant Williams wills his ability to become a married man and finish school to Odell Tant--we've heard rumors, Odell.
36. As for myself, and one of my witnesses, Jean Bunn, we have decided it's best if we just leave Wakelon!

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

As the year 1955 draws to a close, I do not preview the year's events as would the newspaper, radio commentator, or TV announcer. They only guess at the future by the past. I foretell, however, the future by the present, for I am a star gazer. I know the history of the past and I see the secrets of the future.

The riddles of the years I tread and the curtains of doubt I tear down, for as a person of strange wisdom, a conqueror of the unknown, a prophet, I will take you from circumstance, to imagination, and from the sensible to the ridiculous. And now as I gaze at the stars, I see that in 1965:

Barbara Alford is running a ladies' store; instead of selling ready-to-wear clothes, she rents ready-to-go men.

Billy Green is doing very well as a musical veterinarian; he soothes the animals to sleep with his horn; if this doesn't work, he just bops them over the head with it.

Malcolm Martin used to sweep up the streets with his car; now he does it with a broom. He is Zebulon's chief janitor.

Phil Brown had his start in basketball. He is now a famous contortionist appearing soon at Zebulon's famous Woman's Club.

The new "Ruth Temple National Home Economics Building" has just been completed near State College. Jimmy Joyner was the chief engineer.

Sandra Bunn is doing very well since she invented and put on the market a new tickle-proof sweater. It seems she married a gig salesman.

Jeanne Bobbitt is crowned the most insulting girl of the year--with a baseball bat, that is.

Billy Alford liked school bus driving so well at Wakelon that he is now operating Zebulon's only bus company. He calls it the "Take You Anywhere Bus Company."

Jerry Chamblee has taken Clark Gable's place as Movie King. He doesn't sing, dance, or act, he just smiles.

H. E. Edwards was waiting so quietly in a clothing store the other day that he was suddenly whisked off and placed in a window display. He is now the highest paid dummy in the store.

Cadillacs to jets, it's all the same, Douglas Perry is still flying low.

Joe Williams now has his own hillbilly program on TV. His theme song is "Tied Down."

Ann Upchurch, the famous authoress, published her second book, "Pete and Repete."

While Odell is flying jets, Alice Faulkner is flying around the house minding the little Tants.

After three fatalities in one week from an overdose of ice water, Annette Daniels has decided she's not the nurse she used to be.

Luther Long is opening his new modern shoe store next month. He will call it "Long's Foot-long Feet Wear Shoe Store." Sizes thirteen up.

Gayle Dunn proved to be such a destructive character in Miss Walker's lab that she has been sent by the U.S. Embassy to Russia to foul up their new Z-bomb plans.

Harold Murray had just received his five-year safety drivers pin when a freckle got in the way and wham, he hit a ditch.

Menia Hocutt blushed so red on Arendell Avenue when the wind ruffled her skirt, that she stopped traffic for ten minutes.

The police all over the state are searching for Kaye Denton. She was last seen trying to step across a crack in the pavement.

Patsy Allman improved on her history so much while teaching at Wakelon, that archaeologists from Egypt have hired her as chief digger.

David Alford, D.D.S. , is sued by the Pull Hard Dental Association for pulling an eye tooth too hard, bringing total blindness to a fellow member.

Dewey Branuan, Mrs. Antonakos' protege. is awarded his Doctorate in the field of misdemeanor.

Kenneth Eddins is fined twenty-five games of pool for speeding through Runt's Pool Room.

Peggy King is now working at the Kingsdell Bank of Wendell, formerly the Wendell Bank. The name was changed to protect the innocent (The Wendell Bank).

Larry Liles has at last reached his goal. He has invented a machine to think, act, and work for him.

Willard Gay is seen nearly every day on Fayetteville Street in Raleigh selling peanuts. He is trying to make some extra change for an extra redhead.

Edwin Bunn, better known as "Monkey," has written his autobiography, entitled "The Life of a Monkey."

Frank Privette earned his D.S. degree at State. I can't figure out if it's Doctor of Science or Darned Sorry.

Geraldine Johnson has also received a degree. A Mrs. Degree.

Linnie Lou Price named her first Enough because of her hit performance in "Aunt Min Drops In."

Alice Phillips, after giggling two hours, is given a watch engraved, "Miss Giggles."

Victor Pace is known for originating the Tractor Hell Drivers.

Jean Bunn got mad at her pupils and turned so red that she is called "Old Tomato Head."

Linda Mitchell is now first lady of the Davis family. Her duty is minding the children while their father tunes the steel guitar.

Marlene Phelps is desperately afraid of men after she fell in a man hole on main street in Zebulon.

Dear Jenny,

You might not know it, but it is a hard thing for me to do, to write something about such a nice girl and one I love so much. But then, if words could do and say what I want to say about you and how much I love you, then this letter wouldn't hold it all. Believe me it wouldn't. You might not believe me, but that night I carried you to the Drive in with Leslie and Mary Jo, was a thrilling one to me. For quite some time I had been wanting to date you, and that night I was so excited, I didn't know hardly what was happening. After I carried you home, I talked to Leslie a long time about you. And now that we are going together, all I can say is I am thankful, mighty thankful. I love, really I love, tried to be true to you, and if at any one time I did something you didn't like or made you mad, may I say here I am sorry, really sorry. You are one of the most considerate, nicest, easy to get along with, good natured and one of good sense and grand personality and kindness with lots of other things I can think of I know. To me you have become a person who understands its everyday things of life and one who does not get mad or upset about every little thing that comes along. Also I would like to say that I think you have two of the best parents I know. They remind me of my own a lot in that they make you do what they know is right. I like that and in my estimation that kind can't and never will be best. I know there are lots of times when they make us good and mad, but it all is for our good and we should be thankful for it. If at any time your parents think of something they think I should do or any correction they have for me, I please tell me for I want nothing more than to appear and be nice to them. They are the best people as you well know. I only hope I can do as well as our parents have done, in the future that lays ahead. May I also appear nice to you for I love you very much. I have enjoyed every day I have been with you and I know I am going to enjoy the days, weeks, and years to come. If my wish in that wishing pool comes true, and it is what I want more than anything in the world, we have many more good days coming to us. If you decide to definitely become a dentist, may I take this opportunity to wish you all the luck a person can have. May I say, as I told Alice, you will never know how much I care for you and love you. Look, don't let Judy (Gears) worry you, truly I can say she has a long way to go to come up to your standards. You have been true to me and I love you for it. The more I write the more I can think of to write. I shall close by wishing you the best of everything and may God's richest blessings be yours and your future for ever more. Always be as nice and as sweet as you are now and nothing but the best will come your way. Please remember me always!

I should do it, I will every word of it.

Jenny, It really has been swell knowing you these last two years. We have shared many secrets and have had many fine times together. Next year when you are a "Senior" don't forget us little Juniors and let's keep our friendship the "best". If we continue to raise "-----" as we have before, we'll never get to heaven. Don't ever forget the slumber parties, riding around, that certain night near Thiddlesey, and all of our other good times.

Jenny,
I think you are a sweet & cool moto.
loads of love & hugs to you and this old world.

Jenny there's not much left for me to say because it looks like Betsey wrote a book. But these past years have been loads of fun. It has come time for us to leave you. I hope that in your senior year you will have the fun we have had. Have a good time because it is the shortest year in your life. I hope you have a team in basketball. Fall next year and come out on top. Keep that winning smile and your friendly way and I'm sure you will make a great hit at whatever you do. May the best of everything always come your way now and forever.
